

The Philadelphia Inquirer

TUESDAY
JAN. 18, 2005

Michael Klein
INQlings

Photo credit: Douglas Everett

Philly-bred popper Pink was spotted at Grape Street Philly during the show by deSol, the Latin-y rock band from Asbury Park, N.J., that in April will release its debut CD. The band's publicist, Randy Alexander, saw Pink about to buy a CD and says he offered to take her backstage to meet the band. She demurred. "I don't want to get in their way," she said. Alexander says he insisted. She posed for photos and got the CD gratis.